OBITUARY.

Henry Keeling, son of Thomas Keeling and wife, was born in Wright county, May 9, 1900, and died Dec. 7, 1914, aged 14 years, 6 months and 27 days. The funeral services were conducted from the Baptist church at 2 p. m. Tuesday by Revs. W. H. Anderson and Joseph Davis of Mansfield, and A. L. Scott of Mountain Grove, interment in the Mansfield cemetery. Death resulted from an attack of pneumonia. Henry was a student of the Mansfield Public School, and the pupils of his room attended the funeral in a body. Henry was converted to Christ at the recent revival at the C. P. church. He leaves a father, mother, brothers, sisters and others to mourn his early death.

Miss Mae Reed, half-sister of Circuit Clerk S. A. Reed of Springfield, died at her home in Springfield of pneumonia.

Who Said Turkey?

The produce houses are a busy place—receiving, picking, and shipping turkeys.

The Mansfield Produce Co. has about 600 turkeys on the road, which are expected to arrive here Saturday.

About 900 turkeys were received at the Yates produce house yesterday, S. H. Fuge, an Odin merchant, driving in 541—quite a good-sized drove.

Store Robbed

J. D. Reynolds' department store was entered through a rear window Tuesday night and hats, hosiery, gloves, overalls, shirts, shoes, etc., were stolen. The robbers evidently took their time, staying long enough to eat a can of tomatoes.

A Stag Party

Roy Curtis, Wright county's genial deputy county clerk, gave a stag party last night to a few of his friends at Hartville. Those present were F. L. Templeton, court stenographer; Dr. R. E. Latimer, Dr. F. H. Riley, Robert Wood, W. I. Cree, John N. Pryor, Jr., Bert Ellis and E. G. Purdie. The evening was enjoyably spent. Each guest present was given the name of some general or officer in the foreign armies, except one, and he was designated city marshal of Hartville. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was that each guest retired to the kitchen and prepared his own hamburger and cheese sandwiches. And there is no telling what will happen to Roy when his wife returns home.

Meeting Closed

The meeting at the Prairie Hollow General Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Joseph Davis, closed Sunday night with 16 conversions. The meeting had been in progress only one week and good interest was manifested, but it was deemed best to close on account of the inclement weather. Five united with the church Sunday. Baptismal services will be held Sunday, and Rev. Mr. Davis will preach.

A SURPRISE

An enjoyable surprise was given Miss Lois Beach Friday night in honor of her birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served, and a fine time was had.

In the circuit court in the case of State vs. Sam Jones, of Norwood, felonious assault, the jury returned a verdict of common assault, leaving the penalty to be decided by the judge. The divorce case of Joseph Hendricks vs. Annie Hendricks was tried by the court; decree for plaintiff, with division of property settled out of court. Mr. Hendricks was represented by Col. L. O. Nieder of Mansfield, and Mrs. Hendricks by N. J. Craig of Mansfield. The docket is very light and Judge C. H. Skinner expects to get through by Thursday.

The Hartville Regulars defeated the Norwood Rip-Roilers in a basketball game. Outside of a few scratches and blows between two of the players, everything progressed smoothly, with a large audience present. The score was 19 to 16.

Dr. B. E. Latimer reports the arrival Monday night of a fine, large baby girl at the home of W. E. Fuson and wife, north of Hartville. Mr. Fuson is a brother of Dr. J. A. Fuson of Mansfield. Dr. C. E. Barnes and W. C. Shannon of Mountain Grove, and Drs. R. A. Ryan and L. T. Van Noy of Norwood are guests at Young Hotel, attending court.
